

From: Drake, Joshua
To: 'microsoft.atr(a)usdoj.gov'
Date: 1/24/02 2:28pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I feel that the settlement should have an included a clause dealing with Microsoft's exclusion of dual boot systems. In order for competition to exist system retailers must be able to install, and allow access to whatever software they choose. Microsoft's exclusionary licensing agreements prevent alternative Operating Systems from being useful to or even used by consumers.

Thank you,
Joshua Drake